

Preparing to Eat at a Brazilian Restaurant

Eating at Brazil Express Grill is fun, and it gives mommy or daddy a break from cooking.

We have to enter the restaurant and quietly wait for a table.

When the table is ready, the host or hostess will take us to our table.

When we get to the table,
it will have napkins, forks,
knives, and glassware on it.

We do not touch them
until we are ready to use them.

We will have 2 choices:
The Unlimited Dinner, or
to order from a menu.

If we choose the "Unlimited Dinner", we will get up and get our food
from the salad bar.

Mom or dad will help you
to choose the food
from the many choices
in the salad bar.

We will then walk back to our table quietly.

When we are ready
for the meats,
we will put the green card
up on the metal stand.

Later, the Gaucho Chef
will bring us the meats.

Mom or dad will help you
to grab the meat
with the tong
and put it on the plate.

Or if we choose to order from the menu, we will pick something delicious to eat.

We will quietly wait for the waiter or waitress to come to our table and take our order.

We will wait patiently while the chef makes our meal.

We can talk to each other, color, play a small game, use the phone, or use the restaurant's sensory box.

There is a bathroom at Brazil Express Grill, so if you have to go to the bathroom, let mom or dad know.

When the food is ready, the waitress or waiter will bring the food to our table.

We just eat what is on our plate.
We do not take food off the plate of someone else.

When we are done eating, mom or dad will pay the waiter with money or a credit card.

We will then get up and walk out of the restaurant.
